

LAURENT LÉVÊQUE

Global Head of Official Institutions Coverage FIC
MEA Coordinator

Laurent Lévéque, Global Head of Official Institutions Coverage, is leading BNP Paribas' coverage activity across all asset classes and product lines toward Official Institutions.

In 2024, Laurent has also been mandated as lead coordinator for the MEA region for FIC, in addition to his current responsibilities.

He previously worked as Head of Official Institutions Coverage for Europe, Middle East and Africa. Laurent has over 30 years of experience working with Institutional clients.

He headed the EMEA Short Term Fixed Income sales team at JPMorgan (1999) and Bank of America (2005). In 2007, Laurent joined Fortis Bank to run and develop the Institutional Treasury sales franchise in EMEA.

In his current responsibilities as Global Head of Official Institutions Coverage, he leads a team of Senior Bankers based in Europe, Middle East, Asia and Americas, dedicated to Sovereigns, Central Banks, Sovereign Wealth Funds, Supranationals and other government agencies. The mandate of the team is to provide these official sector clients the whole range of advisory and financial services that BNP Paribas can deliver, leveraging on the bank's integrated model with expertise across all geographies and business lines.

BIOGRAPHY

BNP PARIBAS

The bank
for a changing world